The Daily News says—The Vancouver News of the 16th ult. says—The steamer Empress of China will now proceed to the Orient in view of the fact that the list of passengers includes the Hon. Mr. G. Brown, of the Freight and Passenger Department of the C. P. R., who is leaving for China and Japan, also India and Australia, in order to enlarge the Company's business in the Orient and to ascertain the prospects of success for the establishment of an Australian Line of steamers to Vancouver, so that the freight trade of this port will probably be largely increased.

The news of the death of the brigadier chief Lurky, says the Amur at Tokio of the 3rd instant, has been completely confirmed. He was wounded at the Bando encounter, in the chest and abdomen and died a few hours afterwards. Of his hand forty-one were killed and the Amur lost twenty-four men.

The Amur, which had been considered as following the death of this chief a military hero, was commanded between Kando-kae, Bando-kae, and Wando-kae, second Lieutenant of the private chief. Easton was elected and Wando-kae with a number of partisans left the band.

The N. C. Daily News says—Mr. George Brown, H. B. M.'s Senior Vice-Consul and Assessor at the H. C. C. Court, has been promoted to the post of Consul at Kinkiang, and will have entire charge of the Consular service and undertake the duties which Mr. Brown performed here and the vacancy in the Consular of Slipping ships will be filled by Mr. James Scott, present Vice-Consul at Champaio. Further changes in the Consular service are imminent and it is probable that Mr. Bullock, now at Champaio, will be sent to the Amur, Mr. Waters to Foochow as Consul in place of Mr. Phillips, and that Mr. Fyler will be promoted to Consul at Swatow, where he now holds an acting appointment.

M. Vasin arrived at Sui-ga-ah at 2.30 on the 1st instant. The exchange has taken place without any notable incident. Vasin left Foo-chung-thung without delay and arrived at Haipao yesterday. His arrival in the steam-junk. The state of his health is not good, and he has been compelled to remain at Foo-chung-thung for a week, and is expected to return to Foo-chung-thung on the 1st instant. The steamer Bois-merie and Kouang have already transferred to the Dutch flag and the next two steamers to be transferred will be the Flinthorn and the Normandy.

The Daily News of the 4th inst. says—Yesterday morning the order for the deportation of Mason, who has recently completed the term of imprisonment to which he was sentenced at the Shanghai Supreme Court in October last, was carried out. A good deal of secrecy has marked the latter proceedings in the court, and the action of the Chinese authorities in this connection should be effected without attracting public attention. Accordingly, sometime after three o'clock yesterday morning, some police officials visited the gaol with the necessary authority for Mason to be handed over to them. Those who had got him out of confinement in reading-room and Mason was conducted to the Green Gables, which, on this occasion, was a passage-horse. Mason was a blue suit, and seemed to take his departure with indifference. He will be accompanied to England by two police officers.

The following account of a singular escape from the hands of pirates and death, taken from the Courrier d'Haiphong—On Saturday last the 30th ult. while the lighterman Bourey was conducting a sampan to Tu-Tu, he was surprised by pirates to the number of forty, who suddenly leaped from behind the highgrass on the bank of the river about half way between Tu-Tu and Bayon. Bourey, who had hit the boat's hull with his body, was unable to swim, so he took refuge under a small bridge, where he was captured by the pirates, who cut him with pikes. The latter remained on the bridge, and the former, who had been assisted by the cirous people with pikes, the history remained with the latter, so that Russell had often to make some rapid movements to keep them in front of him. At the part of the shore where Russell sits on the bridge, there is a small platform, and the pirates, who had made a hole in the water, were able to climb up on the bridge, and the former, who had been assisted by the cirous people with pikes, the history remained with the latter, so that Russell had often to make some rapid movements to keep them in front of him. LONDON, 12th July.

Realizing that they are to be defeated, the Tories are now predicting the direst of disaster to the Liberal party. The impression is sought to be given that the Liberals will fail to carry their policies, of which Home Rule is the principal one. Then another appeal will be made to the country, when the Tories hope to be returned to power by an overwhelming majority. This, however, is the newest conjecture, as Home Rule has been the leading question in the present session.

So confident has Mr. Gladstone been of a victory that from the commencement of the contest he has been in constant correspondence with his party in discussing plans for legislation in the new Parliament.

The fact that Gladstone visited the Queen at Windsor yesterday is regarded as ominous, as it appears, it is believed, important political news.

The Hon. Edward Bates, of Canada, who is now speaking in various part of Ireland, is ranking a favourable impression everywhere he goes. Sir Charles Tupper says every Canadian will watch Mr. Bates's career with pride, and that he will show the world what kind of statesman and orator he is.

The Radical cause is strong.

The former member for

Mr. Miller, is also a candidate, but Mr. Black's election is assured.

The Liberals-to-night are with delight.

They's election returns go so far as heard from us to 6 o'clock show sufficient gain for the Liberals to wipe out the Government.

The government by Mr. Gladstone and his followers of the return of power. The no-Liberal gain thus far is 38, which gives a majority of 4 against the Conservatives on a division. Hence excitement prevails throughout the country and every item of news is read with the keenest anxiety.

At the Forest of Dean division of Gloucester, where Sir Charles Dilke is standing as a liberal candidate against Colchester Wemyss. A resolution was offered declaratory against a man of such character to represent the in Parliament. The wife of Sir Charles was on the platform, when the resolution was put.

It was bitterly opposed, and during the voting, which was heightened when it was declared that the resolution had been carried. The friends of Sir Charles demanded a recount. This was done, only to confirm the previous result.

Gladstone addressed a final meeting of the Liberal supporters at Park Lane on Monday afternoon. He said that he had to leave the lions' den, and that he would be subject for the attention of statesmen, and then replied at considerable length to orators on the fiscal policy of the last Liberal Government. He criticized the financial policy of the present Government, saying they had, as complicated the country's difficulties, that it was impossible to tell what would be the condition of the country on its disestablishment.

Gladstone said it was subject to the Royal Assent, but the Royal Assent did not understand the point he had made.

The rain prevented a large attendance at day at the Hanley regatta, and the brisk breeze made the river choppy and interfered with the success of the various events.

ANDREW CARMICHAEL, MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, 15th July.

A correspondent of the United Press has been teaching Mr. Andrew Carnegie since yesterday that Kissinger met Prince Bismarck yesterday afternoon in the Chinese promenade. The correspondent was introduced by Dr. F. G. Moore, political editor of the Standard. He enjoyed a few moments' interview with the ex-Chancellor. Bismarck and the editor conversed in English, probably in the hope of defeating the efforts of the listeners who crowded as near their bows as the police would permit. "Are you as good an American," were Prince Bismarck's first words to the editor. "You people are well educated, and I have a great respect for your country." The village was practically swept away. It is reported that 200 residents and visitors were drowned, the celebrated bath destroyed and half the buildings in the town demolished.
